RD121 AMENDMENT AND CANCELLATION FORM

Plot amendment/cancellation schedule. For use only when amending or cancelling existing registered plots

Please note that any separating walls or floors which are not registered with Robust Details Limited may be subject to the pre-completion testing (PCT) method of satisfying the Building Regulations. In the case of flats/apartments, it is essential that you consult the tables in the introduction of the robust details handbook to identify which combinations of walls and floors are permissible, and which would be subject to pre-completion sound testing.
